To whom it may concern,

I'm writing to wholeheartedly recommend Elyse Dupre for a future position with your company. Elyse interned with Men's Fitness magazine during the summer of 2010 under my direct supervision. Her duties included writing and researching stories for our front-of-the-book sections as well as assisting the entire staff with a wide range of editorial tasks. She completed several bylined stories and will have work published in most of our fall and winter 2010 issues.

During her time with the magazine, Elyse was a very hard worker, willing to take on whatever tasks were sent her way. She has a great attitude, is a pleasure to work with, and did a great job with everything she was given—coming in early and staying late when needed to make sure everything was done well and completed on time—or in advance—of its due date.

Were we to have an opening in our editorial department, I would hire Elyse right away. She has a bright future in publishing.

Sincerely,

Brian Good
